“such a time as this” (4:14)!
Esther 1-2

Monday—prayerfully read Esther 1:1-8, and answer the following.

1. Give the geographical range of Ahasuerus’ kingdom, and give the number of provinces within this kingdom (1:1). _____
_____
2. Spell the name of the king of the Medo-Persian empire from memory, and the name of his palace (1:2). _____
_____
3. When did King Ahasuerus make a feast, and for how long was this feast (1:3-4)? _____
_____
4. Give the number of days the king made an (apparently) “grand finale” feast; and, list the different colors used in decoration (1:5-6). _____
5. The drinking at the feast was according to the law, which (apparently) meant that no one was _____ to drink, but that the drinking should be according to every man’s _____ (1:8).
6. Take a verse with you for the day, perhaps a verse to displace worry such as I Peter 5:7 or Proverbs 3:5-6.

Tuesday—prayerfully read Esther 1:9-15, and answer the following.

1. Who made a royal feast for the women, and where did she make it (1:9)? _____

2. On which day are we told the king's heart was "merry with wine," what were the seven called who served in the presence of the king, and what were they asked to do (1:10-11)?

3. The seven princes of Persia and Media, who "saw the king's face," and "sat the first in the kingdom," were what kind of people (give two qualities) (1:13-14)?

---

4. Give two of the names of the seven wise men who sat before the king (your two favorite names) (1:14).

---

5. It seems to me that "according to law" in verse 15 refers to "natural law" (meaning "common sense" law and "self-evident" truth), as I consider verse 13 and the fact that this situation probably was unprecedented (2:5). What do you think?

---

6. Take a verse with you for the day, perhaps a verse to displace discouragement such as I Samuel 30:6 or Psalm 42:5.

Wednesday—prayerfully read Esther 1:16-22, and answer the following.

1. What was so serious about Vashti's refusal to come at the king's command (1:16-17)?

5. What seems to have been the heart of the decree, and how was the decree written so that everyone would understand it (1:22)?

---

---

2. How wide-ranging was this search for “fair young virgins,” where were they to be gathered, and unto whose custody were they to be placed (2:3)? _____

---

3. What was the standard by which the maiden was to be selected to be queen, and what do you suppose this included (2:4)?

---

4. What was Esther's other name, who brought her up as his own, what was his family relationship to her, what was the name of their tribe, and in what city apparently did she grow up (2:5-7)?

---

5. What can you apply to your life from this section (or so far in the story)? _____
_____
_____

(alternate question for those truly frustrated by this question, meaning those who thought about it for at least 60 seconds)
Name the king of Judah who was king when Judah was carried into captivity by Nebuchadnezzar (586 B.C.). _____

6. Memorize a portion of scripture (2:4 or perhaps Phil.4:4 which helps us rejoice in the Lord), and take it with you for the day!

2. What had Esther not told, and what did Mordecai do every day (2:10-11)? _____
_____

3. Every maiden was given whatever she wanted to take with her when she went in unto the king (which would give clues to the king as to her personality and wisdom); what did Esther take with her, and what does this tell us of her “coachability” (teachability) (2:13-15)? _____
_____

4. What did Esther obtain from all who “bumped into” her (2:15)? _____
_____

5. Give something you can apply to your life in this section.

2. What was the name of the feast (apparently) given by Ahasuerus upon Esther’s being chosen as queen (2:18)?

Friday-Saturday—prayerfully read Esther 8:1-17, and answer the following.

Joel Arnold’s five principles of “rightly dividing the word of God” (hermeneutics) are (1) read for understanding (what is it saying, what are the facts, cognitive-knowledge over affective-feelings), (2) context is king (look at the scriptures on both sides of the text under consideration), (3) see the big picture (how does this fit in God’s overall plan), (4) be active (take notes, summarize and outline), and (5) “bridge two worlds” (identify timeless principles and make applications for today’s living). The following questions ask you to practice these five principles on this chapter.

1. What is the “understanding” (“knowledge”) of this chapter? Perhaps to answer this you could simply tell what happened in one sentence. _____
_____
2. What is the immediate context of this chapter? (Give where this chapter fits into the story by looking at the chapters on either side of it.) _____
_____
3. How does this chapter (or entire book of Esther) fit in God’s overall plan? _____
_____

4. Outline this chapter into three or four events (points).

---

5. How does this apply?

---

6. Take a verse with you for the day, perhaps Esther 8:16-17:

Remember to pray for Spirit-filling to understand and enjoy this study (Lk.11:13)!

Monday—prayerfully read Esther 9:1-5, and answer the following.

1. “Read for understanding”—give two facts of this section. (Joel Arnold taught that our first purpose in studying the scriptures is to understand, and it is also good and appropriate to seek refreshment and encouragement as we “daily meditate”!)
_____
_____

2. “Context is king!” What is the story line as chapter 8 ends?
_____

3. “Think big”—think in terms of how this story fits in with the big picture (metanarrative) of progressive revelation (which is the over-arching story beginning at creation and the fall, progressing through the flood and then Abraham, Moses and the Law, the captivities, the death/burial/resurrection of Christ, Pentecost and the church, and then consummation of it all summarized in the Revelation). Where does this story fit in the “big picture”? _____
_____

4. “Be active”—take notes, including at least one or more of the following: summarize, write down something you learned (perhaps the theme of that section or something you never noticed before), outline, mark and look up words (please give a sample of your “activity”). _____

_____
2. What did Mordecai establish officially (9:20-22)? _____
_____
3. What was turned into a good day? _____

_____
6. Take a verse with you for the day, perhaps Proverbs 1:10, "My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not."

Sunday—prayerfully review Esther 9-10.
