Edom Obadiah

Why study Obadiah?!

Now to him that is of power to stablish you (1) according to my gospel [which I have just laid out in this letter of Romans, beginning at 1:1], and (2) the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, but now is made manifest, and (3) by the scriptures of the prophets [this book of Obadiah is indispensable to being established in Christ!], ...be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen. Romans 16:25-27

Remember to pray for illumination (to be taught of God's Spirit—Jn.6:45)!

The message of Obadiah is that the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen (v.15), particularly regarding their treatment of Israel!

Monday—prayerfully read (and ask for enlightenment in) the book of Obadiah (and other portions in your daily reading plan)!

1. What nation is Obadiah written about primarily? _____
2. What was the specific offense of this nation? _____

Tuesday—prayerfully read Obadiah vs.1-9.

1. Who had a vision, and what was heard from the LORD (v.1)?

2. What was an ambassador (presumably) from the LORD to proclaim (v.1)? _____

3. What had deceived Edom, and what apparently contributed to that (vs.3-4)? _____

4. What particularly hurtful thing had happened to Esau revealed in v.7? List the three ways in which this group of adversaries was identified (in this verse 7). _____

5. Give something you can apply to your life from this section (vs.1-9). _____
6. Memorize a portion of scripture (vs.1 or 3?), and take it with you for the day!

Wednesday—prayerfully read Obadiah vs.10-14.

1. What particular thing condemned Edom (v.10)? _____

2. What two punishments would come upon Edom for their wrong of v.10? _____
3. When specifically did Edom's great grievance occur (vs.11-14)? _____
4. What three-word phrase is repeated many times in this section, and how many times is it repeated (vs.11-14)? _____

5. Give something this section tells us about our God (vs.10-14). _____
6. Memorize a portion of scripture (v.10?), and take it with you for the day!

Thursday—prayerfully read Obadiah vs. 15-21.

1. What is near upon all the heathen, and what “shall be done unto thee” (v.15)? _____

2. What two things (together!) will be upon mount Zion; and, what will the house of Jacob do (v.17)? _____

3. The fire of what two houses will burn up the house of Esau (v.18)? _____
4. Who do you suppose are the antecedents of the “they” of vs.19 and 20? _____
5. Give something this section tells us about our God (vs.15-21).

6. Memorize a portion of scripture (8:11), and take it with you for the day!

Friday—prayerfully read Obadiah, preparing to outline it tomorrow!

- 1-4. How many times will you have read this book by 9:30 a.m. this Sunday?! _____
5. What personal application can you make from this book of Obadiah? _____
6. Memorize a portion of scripture that helps you admire Him (v.21?), and take “it” with you for the day.

Saturday—prayerfully outline Obadiah (in whole sentences).

- A. _____

- B. _____

- C. _____

Sunday—prayerfully review Obadiah.

Memorize a portion of scripture, and take “it” with you for the day!
